
2010 Women's LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

The value starts when you sign up!

You will receive an online link, enabling you to take a personalized assessment generating a 60+ page report on you! Together we will debrief it at the Summit, and talk about ways to put it to practical use in your life. Plus, learn from three women entrepreneurs who want to invest their personal stories and experiences in you!

Leadership Summit WILL:

Provide tools to guide you into your personal leadership transformation.

Offer insight into realistic expectations of your behaviors as well as others and the potential conflicts those behaviors create in the work environment by examining real world examples and experiences.

Unleash a renewed sense of passion and confidence in your leadership ability to successfully negotiate and navigate through behavior and communication conflicts consistently.

WHY?

Women in leadership have unique needs and issues. We want to lead with purpose and truly pursue our passions. At the Summit, we will address these needs by providing you with: Your own leadership and behavior style, motivator and passion values, with an action plan to implement on Monday morning!

SPEAKERS

Shandel Slaten, CEO of True Life Coaching
2009 Target Training International "Coach of the Year"

Molly Wilmot, CEO of Mostly Muffins
Launching her new brand PINKS this month!

Anne-Marie Renoud, CEO of Brambleberry
2009 Nellie Cashman "Woman Business Owner of the Year"

TAKEAWAYS

Grasp how and why your behavior and communication style matter to your leadership.

Become aware of the 5 personal skills that every true leader masters.

Visualize a clear and true picture of your behavioral style and motivational needs.

Gain the understanding necessary to maximize your influence and impact.

Learn how to insert more effective communication skills into all your relationships.

Make career choices that compliment your underlying passions.

Downtown Seattle

March 13th, 2010

8:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

The Summit Cost is $125 (after Feb 25th)

Sign up before Feb. 25th and get the Early bird special for only $75 (expires Feb 25th)

More at www.2010leadershipsummit.com

Refreshments and Lunch will be provided.

Location: 2333 Western Ave, Seattle, WA 98121

We are partnering with Dress For Success so bring an outfit to help another woman in need.